OPENING KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Colene Elridge
CEO of Be More Consulting

Coach Colene's decade-plus of HR experience, led to her being known as "the fixer"- she's called to help organizations and leaders create better workplaces, productive teams, and aligned results. Her career in government focused on Affirmative Action, EEO, and Diversity. She was a successful investigator of harassment and discrimination complaints and implemented strategies that resulted in more diverse and inclusive workplaces.

She is the CEO of Be More Consulting, a boutique agency designed to support organizations in creating cultures of inclusion and developing women leaders.

Her first book, Monday Morning Pep Talks, was named by Success Magazine as a top book for professional women. Colene is the founder of EmpowHer Conference, a women's leadership event that focuses on building women into leaders both at work and in their lives.

Colene has a bachelor's degree in Cultural Anthropology from Transylvania University, where she currently serves on the Board of Regents, and an MBA from Sullivan University. She loves yoga, her family, movies, and laughing!

CLOSING KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Ashley Glass
CEO of Black Women Cultivating Change

Ashley is a native of Dayton Ohio, and a mother to 3 beautiful daughters. She obtained her bachelor's degree in health education from the University of Cincinnati, and her Masters degree in Public Health from Kent State University. Recently Ashley also obtaining her bachelor's degree in Nursing from Mount St Joseph University, so that she can combine her clinical and public health experience to have a better reach in the medical community.

Ashley is currently the Founder and CEO of Black Women Cultivating Change where she works to reduce the stigma related to mental health in the black community. Ashley is also the Health Equity Director for All-In-Cincinnati, where she works to deepen, amplify, multiply local and regional efforts to build equitable, thriving neighborhoods. Ashley is also a Maternal Mental Health Manager for Best Point Behavioral Health where she is managing a project that will capture data in hopes to create a sustainable program that will meet the needs of the mental health of Mothers in some of our most vulnerable populations in Cincinnati.
