

Advancing Interprofessional Collaboration

June 12th – June 13th, 2020

Conference Description

This conference targets the importance of interprofessional collaboration across the Allied Health professions. Educational tracks on ethics, supervision, mental health and wellness, and research will allow attendees the opportunity to share knowledge and network across disciplines in areas that are of interest and clinically relevant. This conference is open to Allied Health professionals working for or collaborating with UC College of Allied Health Sciences and Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center.
